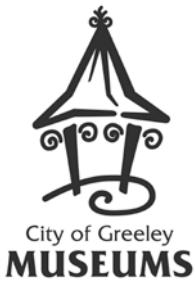
Folk Arts in the Colorado Classroom



Our Thanks

This project was made possible through the funding and support of the Colorado Council on the Arts. Ties That Bind: Folk Arts in the Colorado Classroom represents over 25 years of work by the Colorado Council on the Arts Folk Arts Program. Many organizations and individuals have contributed to those efforts over the years. The organizations listed above provided the major support and funding for creating this updated version and making it easily accessible online.

This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts.
